

Ulbrich Stainless Steels & Special Metals, Inc

Ulbrich Stainless Steels & Special Metals, Inc. is a 4th-generation, family-owned company that has been producing stainless steels and special metals in strip and foil as well as flat, fine and shaped wire since 1924.

Catering to the Automotive, Industrial, Medical, Consumer, Electronics, Aerospace, Oil & Gas, Power Generation and Construction markets, Ulbrich also holds a separate solar business channeled through Ulbrich Solar Technology, headquartered in Westminster, SC. Ulbrich also has strategically located service centers, extensive sales and technical support, abundant inventory and various quality certifications in place.

Ulbrich has been in the business for over 90 years, which has resulted in lifelong relationships with countless customers, and products and services that you can rely on. The US government has trusted Ulbrich for well over half a century, from World War II stainless steel mess kits to titanium alloys for the latest aircraft components. Ulbrich is always focused on improving its capabilities and reaching new or existing markets.

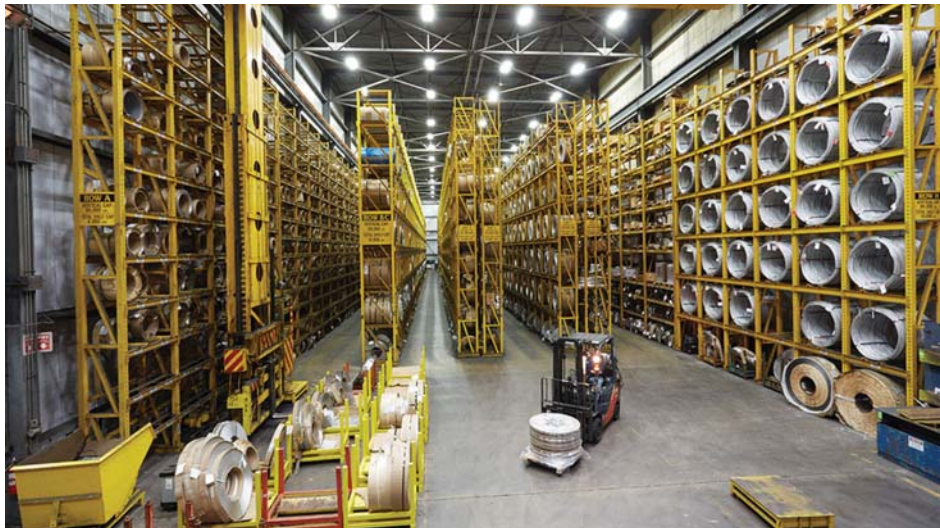

At Ulbrich, you'll find a full range of grades and alloys along with a series of specialized equipment to process your custom order. Ulbrich's revolving inventory is on a fast track retrieval system to get your material processed quickly and efficiently.

Ulbrich is able to meet special requirements of strip that must be truly flat with the latest in stretch bend leveling technology and rugged tension bridles along with a nest of small diameter bending rolls. At Ulbrich, we honor challenges to customize any difficult to produce dimension, specification, and tolerance; we produce everything from average to extremely tight tolerances.

With 12 strategically located facilities across the globe, Ulbrich strives to meet or exceed your expectations in as many ways as we can. Whether Ulbrich is your precision re-roller, specialty service center, or your wire masters, Ulbrich's success is measured by your satisfaction.
